The lounge at Adour is a posh pad designed to keep decadent style burning bright.

DESIGN OF THE YEAR

We Adour This!

Luxe is the leitmotif of the redesigned St. Regis, and no space better represents DC's emergence as a capital of style and influence than Adour, the hotel's elegant restaurant and lounge. This mod marvel was masterminded by NYC's Rockwell Group "to evoke a bespoke atmosphere by using a sophisticated color palette, classic modern light fixtures, graphic custom-designed rugs, elegant marble and chrome-accented modern furniture, covered in luxurious leather," says a member of the Rockwell Group design team. 923 16th St., NW, 202.509.8000.
